

On Being a Writer:

Developing Habits for a Writing Life That Lasts

Dedicate a day to your writing life.

- Secretly writing a novel or memoir and wondering what to do when it's done?
- Struggling with writer's block, feeling stuck and unproductive?
- Needing confidence to take the next step in your writing life?
- Penning poetry you wish you could share with the world?
- Wondering how to live out a fruitful writing life day by day?

No matter where you are in your writing journey, this one-day workshop will provide inspiration, input, and solid, practical ideas.

Invest in your work, your dream, your creative future.

Saturday, November 15

9:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.

Hope Bible Fellowship

3805 Stonebridge Drive, Round Rock, Texas 78681

Workshop Leaders:

Ann Kroeker (<http://www.annkroeker.com>) & Charity Singleton Craig
(www.charitysingletoncraig.com)

Event Coordinator: Trish Southard (trishsouthard@gmail.com, 512-680-2212)

For more information or registration, visit <http://charitysingletoncraig.com/rrworkshop/>.
Cost: $50 (includes all sessions and lunch catered by Bee's Knees Bakeshop)

American Sign Language (ASL) interpreter available at no cost, but pre-registration required.